Local Philadelphia Tri-State Area Financial Planning Association To Celebrate National Financial Planning Week

Philadelphia, PA (September 21, 2005) – Mark your calendar now! The Financial Planning Association of the Philadelphia Tri-State Area (FPA – PTSA) will celebrate National Financial Planning Week October 3-9, 2005.

FPA - PTSA, in conjunction with other chapters from the Financial Planning Association's (FPA) nation-wide network of more than 100 local chapters, will sponsor a series of public events and educational seminars aimed at helping individuals discover the value of financial planning and understand the financial planning process.

This year's Financial Planning Week will feature workshops at local senior centers, seminars at area high schools, and presentations by members of the FPA to college finance students at area universities. These community outreach programs will help educate local residents on the importance of proper financial planning during each stage of life and the career opportunities available to those studying finance.

The Financial Planning Association (FPA) is the membership organization for the financial planning community. Its members are dedicated to supporting the financial planning process in order to help people achieve their goals and dreams. FPA believes that everyone needs objective advice to make smart financial decisions and that when seeking the advice of a financial planner, the planner should be a CFP® professional

For more information on FPA's National Financial Planning Week or to join the FPA in making this event a tri-state success, please contact Christen Rice of Perception, Inc. at 301-963-7555 or christen.rice@perceptiononline.com.
